

Why would you monopolize the news so that an entire city can have only one point of view. Perhaps the FCC will have to be investigated for improper decision-making, especially during war-time tension.
florence reeder